Job Hunting in the 21st Century - The New Reality

A unique series of workshops for those having difficulty maneuvering through the job transition process in the current business climate.

The first workshop will be held September 9, 2009 at 7:30 P.M. at the Young Israel of Lawrence-Cedarhurst, 8 Spruce Street, Cedarhurst and will be led by Perry Newman, CPC, whose background is described below.

Participants will learn how to approach a job search, develop a personal brand and write a resume that sells you before, during and after a job interview. Although there is much written on these subjects, Mr. Newman will discuss valuable material not found online or in any publication.

ABOUT THE PRESENTER

Perry Newman, CPC, is the driving force behind First Impressions, which he founded in 2007.

Mr. Newman has had a successful career first as a Wall Street headhunter and then as a recruiter of technical and executive talent in the fields of accounting, IT and healthcare. He is also the founding partner/CEO of Harrison Dane Associates, a Park Avenue-based boutique executive search firm.

At First Impressions he has taken career coaching to a new level by helping executives with the creation of professional marketing portfolios, personal branding and the synchronization of social media into their job search
